A Community of Learning Fall 2023 - Spring 2024
Intellectual Freedom: Reclaiming Voice, Choice, & Representation

Dear Supporter of Education:

The New England Association of Teachers of English invites you to join instructors, students, administrators, and other educational professionals in supporting intellectual freedom. As one of the oldest professional educational organizations in the country, we are proud to facilitate access to information, products, and services to help educators foster full expression of ideas in their school communities. We are offering you the opportunity to be associated with several quality events throughout the school year.

We are thrilled to be planning an in-person conference with dynamic, interactive workshops at Wachusett Regional High School on October 21st. Our Exhibits Hall will be an exceptional setting to address teachers, administrators, college instructors, and curriculum leaders directly. The conference package will contain a list of all the exhibitors, their contact information, and a 25-word description of their products, a valuable resource that attendees will take back to their schools. We are planning for an independent book seller to offer titles specifically chosen by workshop presenters and our keynote speaker. Many of our attendees are considering taking courses to enhance their skills and knowledge, so we welcome colleges, universities, and professional development agencies. You may reserve a table for $200 for the first table and $100 for each additional table. Non-profit organizations may reserve a table for $100. You can download forms and more information at <http://neate.org/>, where you will find the registration form and a link to PayPal.

I would be pleased, too, to reserve you space in our Virtual Exhibits Hall, connected to all the workshops, panel discussions, and book clubs that our members will attend virtually in upcoming months. A 100-word description of your products, programs, and/or services, linked to your own website, will be available to all visitors to the NEATE website. You might even like to raffle off an item to draw more attention to your website. Perhaps you will want to provide a certain number of free or discounted books to help NEATE members appreciate what you have to offer them. Seeking to make this opportunity affordable to everyone, we have established three levels of participation. We will credit our Fall Conference exhibitors with the amount that they paid for their tables at that event. Gold exhibitors ($300) will have maximum and priority visibility, with an opportunity for large images. Green exhibitors ($200) will have moderate visibility, with an opportunity for medium images. Yellow exhibitors ($100) will have lesser visibility, with an opportunity for smaller images. Non-profit organizations will be charged half of these fees. Contact us directly if you are interested in sponsoring an event in full or part or if you have any questions.

You can download forms and more information at <http://neate.org/>, where you will find the registration form that is attached here, as well as a link to PayPal. I am eager to talk with you about ways for us to collaborate and enhance NEATE's Community of Learning!

Sincerely,

Debbie Woelflein
